A large, welcoming front porch announces your arrival to The Harris – a charming home plan that features an abundance of windows on the open concept main floor. The well-defined living room and dining room areas provide flexibility for entertaining as well as lots of space for everyday living. The spacious kitchen features a handsome breakfast bar with double sinks and plenty of counter space, making it the ideal place for culinary masters. A convenient pantry provides extra storage and a walk-in laundry room makes this plan ideal. You'll also love the large front porch, which is great for watching sunsets, barbecuing or just taking in the view. A powder room and access to the garage located at the rear of the home provides even more convenience. The second floor features a gorgeous master bedroom retreat complete with walk-in closet, second closet, large ensuite bath with oversized glass shower, and two more bedrooms sharing a full size bathroom.
